INTENTION THIS WEEK
MAIN CHURCH
Marie C. Higgins

Dear Parishioners,

We would all like to have constant encouragement and positive feedback from others in our lives. But some of us live somewhere between dull discouragement and sheer panic, harassed by deadlines, bruised by worry, and broken by disillusionment.

We need someone to encourage us as we put the confusing pieces of our lives together. God is always there to motivate us with an inspired plan of action. God has blueprints for us to follow. Hopefully, we continue to grow in our Faith and realize more and more that God loves each of us and cares for us every moment of our lives, no matter how we may feel about ourselves. We need to keep reminding ourselves: "I do nothing on my own."

ALTAR & ROSARY SOCIETY
INSTALLATION OF NEW OFFICERS &
ROSARIAN OF THE YEAR

Holy Family Altar & Rosary Society celebrated their Annual Communion Mass and Breakfast last Sunday naming Rosarian Diane Javins as “Rosarian of the Year.” Each year the society honors a woman who demonstrates Mary-like qualities along with her love, commitment, and overall dedication to her parish community. Outgoing president Kathy McConnell stated, “no one deserves this honor more.” Pictured below Rosarian of the Year Diane Javins with her family standing from left to right: Diane’s husband Ward, son Stephen, his wife Katie, granddaughter Gianna, son-in-law Anthony and daughter Kristin.

Pictured below are the new officers that Fr. Mark Devlin installed from front to back: President Marianne Bennett,

Vice President Michele Leite, Secretary Roberta Janasz-Nagle, and Financial Secretary Betty Pietrowski. (Not pictured Treasurer Jane Breen.) Also pictured is outgoing president and now Advisor Kathy McConnell, Spiritual Director Sr. Gloria Jean, and our Communion Breakfast Chairperson Rosarian Kathy Duffy. Fr. John Campoli was our speaker who spoke on how we, too, are invited to say “yes” like Mary adding three elements that keep us from doing this: control, criticism, and complaining. For more info. on Fr. John visit www.hisloveministries.com. For more pictures visit holyfamily.us & click on parish bulletin.
