Dear Parishioners,

The Holy Eucharist is a Sacrament in which Christ himself is truly though not visibly present as God and Man, with his glorified Body and Blood, under the appearances of bread and wine, to offer himself on the altar as our sacrifice and to give himself as our sacrificial food.

The Eucharistic celebration is a holy meal which recalls the Last Supper, reminds us of our unity with each other in Christ, and anticipates the banquet of the kingdom of heaven. In the Eucharist, Christ the Lord nourishes Christians, not only with his word but also with his Body and Blood, effecting a transformation which impels them toward greater love of God and neighbor." (National Catholic Directory, #120).

Are we properly disposed to receive the Lord sacramental Body and Blood every time we attend and participate in Mass? Are we free from sacramentally unconfessed serious (i.e., "mortal") sin when we "go up" to receive Communion? Do we mindlessly receive Communion simply because we are attending a Mass and everyone else in our row seems to be filing out and forward but with ourselves not being properly prepared spiritually?

The gift of the Body and Blood of Christ is a treasure that we will never fully understand or truly appreciate in this life, but hopefully in the life to come forever with the Lord in heaven.

Fr. Mark

DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE
TO THE BASILICA OF THE NATIONAL SHRINE
OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION – 9/17/11

Bishop O’Connell invites the clergy and the faithful, of the Diocese of Trenton, to journey with him to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception on Saturday September 17. A pilgrimage is a devotional act of faith that has been part of human religious experiences for centuries. This year’s pilgrimage will be a public witness to the Bishops’ Pastoral letter on marriage: Love and Life in the Divine Plan. At a time when the media, government, and society offers little support to married couples, Bishop O’Connell calls the people of the Diocese to pray with and for married couples and their families. There will be opportunities for couples to renew their marriage vows and receive a blessing. Bishop O’Connell hopes that husbands, wives, and their children, young, single and married will travel together to the Shrine this year. Please contact Sr. Gloria Jean for reservation information at 732-264-1484 or 732-739-3065.
