Dear Parishioners,

On March 31, 2011, all the parishes in our diocese received a letter from Bishop O'Connell thanking them for their efforts and cooperation for the 2011 Bishop's Annual Appeal. To date $5.6 million in pledges have been received towards the $8 million goal. $1 million of this funding will be put directly into the hands of parents in the form of student tuition assistance, help all parishes in the diocese with their growing religious education needs, and cover the costs of educating young men for the priesthood.

So far Holy Family Parish has received $45,655. (70%) toward its $65,000. goal. We thank the 186 donors who have pledged this amount to date. Your pledge will help our bishop show the world that the people of Holy Family Parish are proud of their Catholic faith and we want to help hand it forward.

Bishop's Appeal pledge cards are available at all of the church entrances today and will be found in all of the pews next weekend, May 14 and 15. I hope that those of you who are able and not already done so will prayerfully consider becoming an active part of this year's Bishop's Campaign. Remember, no gift is too small. Thank you..
