Dear Parishioners,

The Ten Commandments are one of the pillars of the Catholic faith, because they spell out what's considered sinful behavior by direct decree from God. The Ten Commandments condemn idolatry, blasphemy, profanity, sacrilege, murder, adultery, fornication, stealing, lying, and so on. Catholicism sees these ten rules as more than just the law of behavior. Like a chemical formula or a physician's prescription or a chef's recipe, if the Ten Commandments are followed diligently, then their outcome is certain. Obey the commandments, and you'll have eternal life.

Fr. Mark
