Dear Parishioners,

Cultural changes in recent times have undermined God's will for marriage. The sexual revolution, aided by artificial contraception, have made it more culturally acceptable for men and women to have sexual relations without having to marry each other. The legalization of abortion has reduced the pressure on men and women to be concerned or to worry about the consequences of unwanted pregnancies. The casual acceptance of unmarried cohabitation --- and of couples entering marriage without a permanent commitment --- contradicts the very nature of marriage. The political pressure for the legalization of same-sex unions is yet another step in the erosion of God's plan for marriage and the understanding of marriage in the natural moral order of creation.

In her teaching, the Church gives us a picture of family life that begins with the total gift of love between the spouses evidenced in their resolve to remain exclusively faithful until death separates them. This promise, made before God in the midst of family and friends before an authorized priest or deacon or bishop, is supported by the continuing presence of Christ in the life of the spouses as he pours into their hearts the gift of love through the Holy Spirit. The couple does not walk alone and possesses the graced freedom to respond to all natural and supernatural help.

Fr. Mark

We pray for those awaiting the "Good News" of our Lord's great love for us and for the missionaries who offer the poor and suffering the light of Christ. And we are to offer financial help through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for more than 1,150 dioceses in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.
