Dear Parishioners,
Marriage is the best, most sacred, and most efficient union of man and woman. It's a sign of the permanent, faithful, and hopefully procreative covenant that's made on the day that the woman and man make their vows and exchange consent. The Church believes that sexual intercourse was ordained by God and designed exclusively for a husband and wife. Human sexual activity is designed to promote love (unity) and life (procreation). When sexual intercourse outside of marriage occurs, then sin enters the equation.

Only sex between a husband and wife is considered moral, and even then, the couple must be mutually respectful of each other. If the sole objective is personal pleasure and nothing more, then even a husband or wife sins by reducing his or her partner to a sex object or just a means of self-gratification.

Married sex is considered holy and sacred when it focuses on the unity of the couple as husband and wife -- two human beings who deserve dignity, respect, communication, honesty, fidelity, and compassion. To the Church, human sexuality isn't an end but a means to an end -- the greater unity by means of mutual love between wife and husband and the possibility of new life.

TELEVISION (Check cable listings.)

Realfith TV (teen talk show) Beginning Beginning July 28 – “Our Catholic Identity”...

Our Catholic identity goes beyond just attending Mass every Sunday, acknowledging that we are Catholic or wearing a crucifix or religious jewelry or clothing. Our Catholic identity is wrapped up in how we live out our faith. It is putting our belief in Christ and His Church into action and incorporating our faith beliefs into our daily life. What are some ways that we show our friends and our community that we are Catholic? Would others identify us as Catholics by our actions and behavior? How can we better form our own sense of Catholic identity? (Encore presentation)

Beginning The Catholic Corner (starring Msgr. Walter Nolan) Beginning July 28 – “One Family, Our Family in Christ”... Steve Nicholl, director of the diocesan Department of Development, discusses the focus of this year’s Bishop’s Annual Appeal, which includes Catholic Social Services such as, anti-poverty initiatives, education and advocacy, counseling and housing and Catholic Charities’ Parish Emergency Assistance Program.
