ADORATION EVERY WEDNESDAY

Come and visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament every Wednesday in the Chapel from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Dear Parishioners,

Pride is the first of the seven "Deadly Sins." It is an unreasonable love of self --- a super-confidence and high esteem in your own abilities. It's also known as vanity. It exaggerates your abilities, gifts, and talents, and ignores your weaknesses, frailties, or imperfections.

The sin of pride gives you a fat head. You think you're better or more important than anyone else. It leads to resenting others whom you consider inferior, and you become impatient with others, because you think they're less perfect than you. It can take on a feeling of resentment and resistance to authority figures, be they parents, teachers, employers, pastors, bishops, or popes. Anti-authoritarianism is rooted in pride: "No one is going to tell me what to do." A pastor sometimes gets prideful people, usually nominal or clueless Catholics with a "the customer is always right" attitude, who try to dictate their own preferences that fly in the face of the Church's rules and regulations in order to get their own way at such preparations and occasions, for example, as church weddings or, more infrequently, at funeral Masses.

The Catholic Church teaches that humility is the best remedy for pride. It's not denying the truth. Catholicism regards humility as recognizing a talent that a person may legitimately and unquestionably have as a gift from God and responding with, "Thank you. I've been blessed with this talent or good genes, I guess." Pride would say, "You're darn right. It's about time you and others begin to learn to appreciate me."

PRAYER FOR GENEROSITY

Lord, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve you as you deserve; to give and not to count the cost; to fight and not to heed the wounds; to toil and not to seek for rest; to labor and not to ask for reward; save that of knowing that I do your will.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

MARCH FOR LIFE - WASHINGTON, DC
January 23, 2012

Though not broadcast on networks, hundreds of thousands gathered to March for Life in Washington DC on Monday, January 23,

2012, for those who have no voice. Pictured above is the speaker's stage at the National Mall where speakers such as Terri Schiavo's brother spoke on life issues, and many others. Also pictured are those who represented Holy Family Parish (left to right) Donna Valania, Anne Gallo, and Suzanne Quinn. Other photos featured Pro-Lifers filled with youth, vitality, and joy all in hope of ending abortion in our society.

A Pro-Life Prayer for Our President And Public Officials

Lord God, Author of Life and Source of Eternal Life, Move the hearts of all our public officials and especially our President, to fulfill their responsibilities worthily and well to all those entrusted to their care. Help them in their special leadership roles, to extend the mantle of protection to the most vulnerable, especially the defenseless unborn, whose lives are threatened with extermination by an indifferent society. Guide all public officials by your wisdom and grace to cease supporting any law that fails to protect the fundamental good that is human life itself, which is a gift from God and parents.

You are the Protector and Defender of the lives of the innocent unborn. Change the hearts of those who compromise the call to protect and defend life. Bring our nation to the values that have made us a great nation, a society that upholds the values of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness for all. Mary, the Mother of the living, help us to bear witness to the Gospel of Life with our lives and our laws, through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.
