Dear Parishioners,

We have a deacon! Congratulations to Jim Neubauer, our dedicated parishioner who has served God and us as a cantor, extraordinary minister of the Eucharist, lector, and youth minister in particular, sharing that last mentioned responsibility with Adele Wright, who with Deacon

Jim goes above and beyond the call of duty, as it were, as two of our Holy Family community's informal and generous corps of volunteers in service to the People of God in Union Beach and Hazlet.

This weekend we celebrate Deacon Jim's first official Mass as deacon of the Liturgy of the Word & Eucharist. Along and after four years of study with fifteen other men of our four-county south central New Jersey diocese, Deacon Jim was ordained by our bishop, the Most Rev. David M. O'Connell, CM, at St. Mary of the Assumption Church in Trenton at a 10am Mass on Saturday, May 12. A permanent deacon is one ordained for service to the Church through his local bishop, and usually working at the parish level in conjunction with a priest, the pastor.

Deacon Jim is a recently retired career United States Marine, having served our nation through the Corps for more than three decades, and having attained and earned the rank of a full "bird" (actually, eagle) colonel, with his military occupational specialty ("MOS") in communications. Now he serves God in a special way through the Sacrament of Holy Orders as a deacon, having served our country actively in the military for over half his life. Deacon Jim's wife Debbie and son James Robert have in their husband and father a man of dedication, sacrifice, and extraordinary education, and they deserve our thanks for supporting him in his four-year journey to serve his God and Church as a deacon. We thank Debbie and Jim for continuing to support Jim in his new vocation apart from and following his distinguished military service. As fourth child and second son of nine sisters and six brothers, he joins many of them in their work and lifestyle of religious life and medicine serving others, but as an ordained minister of the Word and Sacrament with the same responsibilities as priests with the exception of offering the Eucharist at Mass, absolving sins, and sacramentally anointing the sick and dying.

We welcome Deacon Jim to our parish and pray that he may have many happy and Spirit-filled productive years of service!

ANNUAL BISHOP'S APPEAL - Parish Rebate Program

The rebate program for the Bishop's Annual Appeal returns funds directly to parishes and is one of the most generous parish rebate programs in the country. Many parishes put these funds toward repairs, improvements, savings, or to help fund specific ministerial needs such as the St. Vincent DePaul Society and parish youth programs.
