SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

Week 39

[Psalms 138:14 I praise you, so wonderfully you made me; wonderful are your works! My very self you knew:] My heavenly Father, thank you for making me so wonderfully! My body is busy storing fat that will help regulate my temperature after I am born. I am also producing special brown fat cells that will play a role generating heat to keep me warm during my first couple of weeks. My lungs are ready for my first breath of fresh air. My brain is developing rapidly and will continue this rapid development until I am about three years old. I can't wait to use my brain to learning all about God and His Commandments! [Psalms 119:73 Your hands made me and fashioned me; give me insight to learn your commands.] I am so thankful for your continued prayers!

I hope you all will come to my baby shower luncheon next Sunday October 20th at 12 Noon in Memorial Hall!
