SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

Week 13

I am practicing my "breathing". When I inhale and exhale a salty fluid goes in and out of my lungs. I don't drown though because I get oxygen in my blood through the umbilical cord, not from the air. I can't wait until I take my very first breath of fresh air! Every day I get better at using my hands and lately I like to play with my fists! Thank you for your prayers.

Dear Parishioners,
 The Sacrament of Confirmation is especially significant because it points to the entire Christian life journey. And Confirmation links us more closely to the Church by celebrating the presence of grace and the Holy Spirit in our lives.

Confirmation also marks a time for response. It calls for wisdom, understanding, courage, knowledge, right judgment, reverence, as well as wonder and awe in God's presence: the Gifts of the Spirit that are mentioned in the ceremony. With these gifts we Christians are confirmed as sons and daughters of God.

Physician-Assisted Suicide...What is at Stake?

Did you know that in Oregon, physician-assisted suicide was legalized in 1997 via a ballot measure. In Washington State, a similar law was passed via another ballot measure in 2008 and went into effect in 2009. No such law has made it through the scrutiny of a legislature despite more than 100 attempts. Oppose the NJ Death with Dignity Act (A3328/S2259)
