SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19

This powerful story describes Samuel, who at the time was the servant of the high priest. The Lord called out to Samuel, who twice thought Eli had called him. They gradually realized that it was the Lord who called for him. So the third time Samuel answered and the Lord remained with Samuel as he grew.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20

Paul explains to the Corinthians that their body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. He tells them to avoid lewd conduct, and glorify God by keeping their bodies pure.

Gospel: John 1:35-42

John told two of his disciples that Jesus is the Lamb of God. They turned and followed him, immediately curious and attracted to him. Andrew told his brother Simon about Jesus. Simon also came to meet Jesus, who renamed him Cephas, or Peter.

Liturgy of the Hours, Divine Office, The Breviary

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states:

1175 The Liturgy of the Hours is intended to become the prayer of the whole People of God. In it Christ himself "continues his priestly work through his Church." His members participate according to their own place in the Church and the circumstances of their lives: priests devoted to the pastoral ministry, because they are called to remain diligent in prayer and the service of the word; religious, by the charism of their consecrated lives; all the faithful as much as possible: "Pastors of souls should see to it that the principal hours, especially Vespers, are celebrated in common in church on Sundays and on the more solemn feasts. The laity, too, are encouraged to recite the divine office, either with the priests, or among themselves, or even individually."

Please join us as we pray the Hour of Morning Prayer (Lauds) Monday-Friday at 8:15 before daily Mass.

Rev. Matthew J. Pfleger

All women of the parish 18 and older are invited to come and join the Altar & Rosary Society. Our next meeting will be on Thursday, January 25, 2018, beginning at 7 p.m. with the Rosary and Benediction followed by our meeting.

Diocese of Trenton – Our Promise to Protect

The Diocese of Trenton is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop’s Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in regard to the reporting of and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report the abuse through the diocesan Abuse Hotline: 1-888-296-2965 or via email at abuseline@dioceseoftrenton.org.

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

Healing the Wounds of Abortion

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother. You do not have to continue to hide in shame and fear. Rachel’s Vineyard’s Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one our retreat weekends. For more information, contact Judy Warenkiewicz at 732-536-6871. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

December 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In virtue of the authority granted by our Holy Father, Pope Francis, to Cardinal Mauro Piacenza, the Major Penitentiary of the Catholic Church, a plenary Indulgence can “be obtained under the usual conditions (sacramental Confession, Eucharistic Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff) by the Christian faithful who are truly penitential and compelled by charity, which indeed they can apply to the souls of the faithful held in Purgatory, by way of suffrage, if they take part in the sacred celebrations, along with the great assembly of people throughout the whole course of the annual event that is called “March for Life,” which will be carried out on the eighteenth and nineteenth days of January 2018” in the entire “Diocese of Arlington” and “the Archdiocese of Washington.”

The decree goes on to note that “the aged, sick and all those who due to grave reason are not able to leave home will be equally able to obtain a plenary Indulgence, having the disposition of detachment from any kind of sin with the intention of fulfilling, as soon as one is able, the three customary conditions if they spiritually join themselves to the holy ceremonies, while also have offered prayers and their sufferings or the ailments of their own life to the merciful God.”

May the efforts of all across this great nation to lift up the value and dignity of each human life continue to bear fruit, and may we all experience God's blessings in this noble undertaking.

Fraternally Yours in Christ,

Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

Donald W. Wuerl
