SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18

The Lord urges Moses to tell the Israelite Community to love their neighbors as themselves. They should bear no grudge or hatred against another.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 3:16-23

Paul, once again, reminds the Corinthians that they are the temple of God, and, as such, must avoid internal disputes and wrangling. He tries to make them realize that they belong to Christ and that the Spirit of God dwells within them.

Gospel: Matthew 5:38-48

In this part of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus exhorts his followers to do an extraordinary thing — to love their enemies and to pray for their oppressors. He reminds them that there is nothing laudatory in loving those who love them for even the “pagans” do this. He urges them to “turn the other cheek” and to “walk the extra mile.”

What is "the" Truth?

"We are living in an age in which people are rather skeptical of truth. Benedict XVI has frequently spoken of relativism, that is, to consider nothing definitive and to think that truth comes from consensus or from something we like. The question arises: does 'the' truth really exist? What is 'the' truth? Can we know it? Can we find it? Here springs to mind the question of Pontius Pilate, the Roman procurator, when Jesus reveals to him the deep meaning of his mission: 'What is truth?' (John 18:37,28). Pilate cannot understand that 'the' Truth is standing in front of him; he cannot see in Jesus the face of the truth that is the face of God. And yet Jesus is exactly this: the truth that, in the fullness of time, 'become flesh' and came to dwell among us so that we might know it (cf. John 1:1,14). The truth is not grasped as a thing; the truth is encountered. It is not a possession; it is an encounter with a Person." - Pope Francis

GOSPEL TODAY February 23, 2014 | 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time | Matthew 5:38-48
God offers love, forgiveness, and compassion for everyone, both good and bad.
We are told to follow God's example and offer more than what it asked.

Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow.

Matthew 5:42

Read the situations below and circle the letter that best describes how God would expect us to act with love, forgiveness and compassion.

Remember: offer more than what is asked.

Answers: c, b, c, a, b

1] Your neighbor's snow shovel just broke, and they ask to borrow yours.

- a] Say no, you need to use it. b] Let them borrow your shovel. c] Follow God's example - help your neighbor shovel the snow.

2] Your playdate accidentally spills some juice.

- a] Help clean it up. b] Help clean it up and offer more juice. c] Have them clean the spill themselves.

3] A classmate is cold and asks to borrow your sweater.

- a] Say no, you might get cold later. b] Let them wear it just to warm up. c] Let them wear it all day and return it another time, if they are still cold.

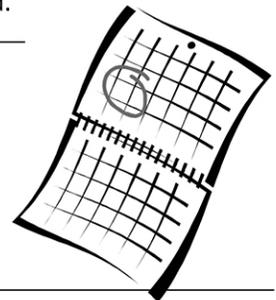

4] Due to a family emergency, your cousin needs to sleep at your house.

- a] Bring out 2 sleeping bags, 2 pillows, extra sleepwear and turn it into a sleepover party, telling funny family stories. b] Tell your cousin to sleep in their clothes. c] Give your cousin a sleeping bag, pillow and sleepwear, then go to sleep in your own bed.

5] Your best friend is moving and asks you to come visit before moving day.

- a] You go and say goodbye and quickly leave. b] You go and visit and spend the day helping your friend pack and share memories of the good times you've spent together. c] You ignore your friend and make other plans.

★ Always 2 5 1 4 3 your time, talents & treasure, and give more than is asked. ★

Do your answers above best describe how God expects us to act? There is a bold, underlined letter in your answer for the 1-5 situations. Put that letter above in the matching space. Example - Situation #2 answer goes in the first space.
