FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7

This passage from Genesis narrates the creation of man, the temptation by the serpent, and the fall of Adam and Eve.

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-19

Paul tells the Romans that Adam's disobedience brought sin and death to the world, but Christ's dying on the cross for us will bring us salvation and life.

Gospel: Matthew 4:1-11

In preparation for His ministry, Jesus goes into the desert to fast and pray for 40 days. There He is tempted by the devil to give evidence of His miraculous powers, but Jesus resists the devil saying, "Away with you Satan! You shall do homage to the Lord your God; Him alone shall you adore."

Stripping Ourselves of Idols

"We have to empty ourselves of the many small or great idols which we have and in which we take refuge, on which we often seek to base our security. They are idols that we sometimes keep well hidden, they can be ambition, careerism, a taste for success, placing ourselves at the center, the tendency to dominate others, the claim to be the sole masters of our lives, some sins to which we are bound, and many others. This evening I would like a question to resound in the hearts of each one of you, and I would like you to answer it honestly: have I considered which idol hidden in my life prevents me from worshipping the Lord? Worshipping is stripping ourselves of our idols, even the most hidden ones, and choosing the Lord as the center, as the highway of our lives." - Pope Francis

(Stripping Ourselves of Idols: Homily, Basilica of St. Paul Outside-the-Walls, Rome, April 14, 2013)

The following is a letter received from Anthony J. Mingarino, Chancellor & Chief Administrative Officer, of the Diocese of Trenton on the recent Philippine Relief Effort

"On behalf of Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M., I am writing to express our deepest heartfelt gratitude for your recent gift of $4,434 to the Diocese of Trenton's Philippine Relief Effort. Here in central NJ, our memories of such natural destruction are all too fresh and all too painful. For this reason, we need to reach out and embrace our Filipino sisters and brothers with our generosity and love. Your gift is a true testament of such love.

All collected funds will be forwarded on in their entirety to the Conference of Catholic Bishops in the Philippines. May God bless and keep you."
