Holy Family Parish Presents
Paulist Fr. James DiLuzio
In a dynamic presentation of LUKE LIVE

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 55:6-9

Isaiah expresses an urgent plea that all should seek the Lord and turn to him for mercy.

Second Reading: Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

In a strongly personal message from Paul while in prison, he says that he wishes "to be freed from this life and to be with Christ," but he realizes that he still has much important work to do.

Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16a

Jesus tells the parable of the owner of an estate who hires workmen for his vineyard. When, at the end of the day, he pays a full day's wage to those who worked only one hour, those who worked all day complained bitterly. But the owner says, "I am free to do as I please, am I not?" Jesus reminds us through this parable that "the last shall be first and the first shall be last."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states clearly:

"The Sunday Eucharist (i.e., the Mass) is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (e.g., illness, the care of infants, debilitating old age, hurricane, blizzard, earthquake). Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave (i.e., "mortal") sin." (#2181)

Celebrating the Feast of St. Francis

Pet Blessing – October 4, 2014

Holy Family School Parking Lot

Bring your pets to the school parking lot for a blessing. St. Francis is the Patron Saint of the environment and of pets. On his Feast Day, it is a tradition that people have their pets blessed. Weather permitting we will gather in the school parking lot at 10 a.m. for a brief prayer service and blessing.

Is God Calling You?
Discernment Meeting September 28

Vocational discernment groups meet to assist young men who are discerning the possibility that God may be calling them to a life of priestly ministry. These groups are designed to explore a priestly vocation with other like-minded men through prayer and sharing vocation stories and experiences. The group meetings aren't meant to convince anyone that the priesthood is their vocation. They are designed to assist you in discovering if the priesthood is your true vocation and build your relationship with Christ along the way. If you are a faithful, single, Roman Catholic man, between the ages of 18 and 40, and are asking yourself whether God is calling you to be a priest, you are encouraged to attend the discernment meeting which will be held on September 28th, 2014 from 4:00 to 6:00 pm at Saint Catherine Parish, 215 Essex Avenue, Spring Lake, NJ 07762. Please register with Diocese of Trenton Vocation Office at vocations@dioceseoftrenton.org or by calling 609-406-7449.

Join us for prayer, sharing vocation stories and concluding with a great meal and conversation. It's an exciting time as you discover and respond to His invitation.

JIM MANFREDONIA
GUEST SPEAKER
ALTAR & ROSARY COMMUNION MASS & BREAKFAST – SATURDAY OCTOBER 5

Jim Manfredonia is the Co-Founder and President of the Domestic Church Media Foundation, Inc. He and his wife, Cheryl, are committed to promoting the cause of marriage and family life through Catholic media.

Mr. Manfredonia holds a BA in Communications from Seton Hall University in South Orange, New Jersey with a specialization in Radio and Television Broadcasting. His minor course of study was Theology.

From 1977 until 1983 he taught Theology at two central New Jersey high schools. For the next fifteen years he worked for the Federal Express Corporation as a Customer Service Operations Manager and then as a Senior Training Specialist. In 1996 Jim was given the opportunity to be the guest host of a local Philadelphia Catholic radio program heard on WTMR 800AM. One year later Jim began hosting his own daily program, "Come To Me", on that same station. He was often joined on the air by Cheryl and their children, Joseph, Angela and Anthony. They received very positive listener responses to their work on the radio and it was during this time that he felt a strong prompting to establish a 24-hour Catholic radio station in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Through his contacts with EWTN, the Global Catholic Television and Radio Network, his prayer, and the prayers of thousands of people in the Philadelphia metropolitan area, were answered.

A local Pennsylvania foundation purchased a station and hired Jim to be the Station Manager. On March 19, 1999, Jim went on the air for the first time and introduced the area to Catholic radio.

SWEET as HONEY

J.D., some people worked all day and some for only a short time, but the landowner rewarded everyone with the same pay.

Yes Honey, and the last hired were paid first so everyone would know the reward is equal.

Just like Heaven, where the reward of eternal life is the same for both long-time believers and new believers.

HOLY FAMILY ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

Comforts of Home SVDP's House in a Box Program

If you are a Union Beach resident recovering from Superstorm Sandy and still need to replace household items, we can help! The SVDP House in a Box program offers all new household furnishings including beds and dressers, sofa, dining table and chairs, pots, pans, dishes, glassware, silverware, bedding and linens. This program is sponsored by the Trenton Diocesan Council of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, with funding support from the American Red Cross and Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Trenton.

For more information on this program, please phone our SVDP Society at 732-264-8132 and leave a message including your name, address, and phone number. We will contact you to setup an appointment to discuss how this program might be able to assist you.

Volunteers Needed SVDP's House in a Box Program

Our SVDP House in a Box Program warehouse which is located in Brick is in need of volunteers, both for reception and staging. Contrary to popular belief, working at the warehouse does not require heavy lifting. If you are interested in volunteering at the warehouse on Fridays or Saturdays from 8:45 a.m. to noon, you may call 732-493-4745 or go to www.volunteersignup.org/bxtrt to sign up.

Hurricane Relief

If you are a Union Beach resident in need of assistance and were affected by Superstorm Sandy, please phone our SVDP Society at 732-264-8132 and leave a message including your name, address, and phone number. We will contact you to setup an appointment to discuss how we might be able to assist you.

News from our SVDP Society for both Sandy and Non Sandy households:

If you are in need of assistance or resources due to the effects of Hurricane Sandy, please contact The Monmouth County Long-Term Recovery Group by e-mail (info@Mcltrg.org) or phone (848-206-2554). The Long-Term Recovery Group and its more than 60 affiliates operating in Monmouth County can supply information, solutions, and referrals to help get you and your loved ones home.

Seer Farms Offers Assistance Temporarily Housing Pets

Seer Farms is a New Jersey based 501(c)3 social services organization that provides animal care, resources, and support for pet-owning families in crisis such as those still recovering from Hurricane Sandy. With many residents and families still displaced or in the process of getting their homes rebuilt or elevated Seer Farms may be an option for circumstances where living situations don't lend themselves to including the furry members of the family. Generally pets are welcomed to stay for up to six months. A donation of $50 per pet per month is encouraged, however they will work with whatever donation a family can afford. Those in need can contact Seer Farms by emailing info@seerfarms.org. For more details visit: <http://hub.mcltrg.org/seer-farms/>

Apply For Winter Energy Bill Assistance

On October 1, the federally funded Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) will begin accepting applications for the 2014-2015 heating season. LIHEAP and the state's Universal Service Fund (USF) provide benefits to supplement the cost of the utility bills for eligible limited-income households. Attend one of the upcoming Energy Assistance Days and learn how to better manage your energy bills and prepare yourself or a loved one for the winter season. To expedite the applications process, please remember to bring social security cards, proof of income (for all household members), deed or rental lease, recent natural gas or electric bills. For more information, email energyassist@njng.com or call 800-221-0051.

FoodBank of Monmouth County Intake

The FoodBank is a community nonprofit whose mission is to alleviate hunger and build food security. All services are provided free of charge. A trained FoodBank outreach worker can screen you for benefits and help you apply for: SNAP (Food Stamps), GA/TANF Cash Assistance, Utilities Assistance (USF, LIHEAP), affordable health care or Medicaid, VITA (free tax preparation).
