THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:7-9

Jeremiah speaks of God reuniting the people of Israel after their exile. He states that although they departed in tears, God will lead them all back and protect them, because he is father to Israel.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:1-6

Each high priest is taken from among people and offers sacrifices for their sins. High priests do not choose to take on this honor, but are chosen by God. Even Christ did not choose this office, but was chosen by God to be a priest forever.

Gospel: Mark 10:46-52

A blind beggar approached Jesus and pleaded that Jesus heal him. Jesus called the man over and said, "Your faith has healed you." The man immediately received his sight and proceeded to follow Jesus up the road.

Gospel Today

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Mark 10:46-52

Bartimaeus had great faith in Jesus. Because of his faith, Jesus healed the blind beggar, and suddenly he could see!

©2015 Bon Venture Services, LLC

The first thing Bartimaeus saw was the beautiful face of Jesus! What else do you think he saw around him? Draw these things... for example: other people in the crowd, things along the roadside, the town of Jericho.
