Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:1-3

Paul sends greetings to the people of Corinth, who have been called to be holy and consecrated in Christ.

Gospel: John 1:29-34

Holiday Closing

The Parish Offices will be closed on Monday January 16th in honor of Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

Dear Parishioners,

Now that the winter season is well upon us it is time to address snow and ice safety that should concern us all.

When there is a significant snowfall or ice hazard the main/front steps of the church will be closed off. Please do not attempt to enter the church building through the front doors as they will be locked when the steps are closed off.

Enter the church building through the ground level doors located at the large/east parking lot side of the building, the handicapped entrance or the side door entrances located on the small /west parking lot side of the building. Entrance for the 8:30AM week day masses is through the chapel entrance located in the rear of the church.

Please know that the safety of our parishioners and guests is our primary concern. If you miss Mass because of severe weather conditions there is no fault or control that you have over the situation. Keep yourselves safe under all circumstances.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding, God bless you.

Fr. Mark

However, in these times of economic struggle, poverty and violence are still major obstacles in their daily lives. Your support helps give hope to people in the region, especially the youth who seek to live faith. It is more important than ever that we support the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean. Please give generously in next week's collection

Good News International
A Catholic Lay Ministry

Bill Wegner President of Good News International

Bill Wegner was an American success story. He rose from a modest childhood to become a prosperous businessman, community leader, and elected official. Combined with a wonderful family, he seemed to have it all. Yet he was still unsatisfied.

Bill came to realize that what was missing in his life was a relationship with his God. Through a major conversion he was able to finally find the peace of Jesus.

Now in full-time ministry for over eighteen years, Bill has conducted over 400 parish missions, workshops and conferences throughout the United States, Ireland, and Central America.

In November 2000, the Sacred Heart Institute presented Bill with the Father Jim Ferry Award for evangelization. He is the founder and president of Good News International, a Catholic lay ministry, which was nominated in 2001 for the Pope Pius VI Evangelization Award by the National Catholic Conference for Evangelization (NCCE) in Washington, DC.
