SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 15:15-20

This passage from Sirach gives strong, unequivocal emphasis to free will in every person. Before each of us is set, sin or virtue, life or death, and each of us are free to choose the one or the other.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Paul explains to the Corinthians that there are two different kinds of wisdom — the wisdom of God and the wisdom of the world. The wisdom of God is mysterious, but this wisdom has been revealed “to those who love him” through the Spirit.

Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus tells the people he has come to fulfill the law. He speaks strongly against murder and anger, against adultery and lust, and against false oaths and lies. He warns the people that unless their virtue exceeds that of the Pharisees, they “will not enter the kingdom of God.”

Mass Intentions Available 2017

Offering a Mass for a special Intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Masses are offered for many reasons; for the souls in purgatory or in remembrance for someone who is deceased, or someone who is ill or having a special occasion such as an anniversary or a birthday.

Mass intentions are available for the months of February, March, & April. Please contact the parish office for specific dates.

Memorial Opportunities

If you would like to memorialize the Altar Flowers or Tabernacle Candle in honor/memory of a loved one for one week, please contact the parish office. Intentions will be listed in the bulletin.

About Catholic Men For Jesus Christ: CMJC strives to bring men together to build each other up, support one another, and challenge one another on our spiritual journeys to become the men that we are created and called to be.

Gospel Today

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Matthew 5:17-37

In the Sermon on the Mount, following the Beatitudes, Jesus reminds us of the ten commandments. Love God and all He created.

©2017 Bon Venture Services, LLC

Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven.

MATTHEW 5:19

The Ten Commandments are written on these sweet candy hearts just in time for Valentine's Day! Color the hearts, then cut them out - keep them for yourself or share them with the people you love.
