FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 55:10-11

Just as the rain and snow water the earth and make it fruitful, so does the word of God bring forth good seed.

Second Reading: Romans 8:18-23

Reminding all that the trials and sufferings of this life are "as nothing," Paul says that the glory we shall receive will overshadow all things.

Gospel: Matthew 13:1-23

Jesus tells the parable of the sower and the seed. The seed that landed on the footpath, on rocky ground, or among thorns withered and died; the seed that fell on good ground -- "the man who hears the message and takes it in" ... "bears a yield of a hundred-fold."

RESPECT LIFE NEWS – Atlanta, GA, June 19, 2017. The Georgia Supreme Court upheld the dismissal of a challenge to Georgia’s 20-week fetal pain abortion bill that had kept the 2012 law passed by the Georgia General Assembly from being enforced for the last five years. The fetal pain bill, so named because an unborn child can feel pain at 20 weeks, made most abortions after 20-weeks illegal. During the ACLU lawsuit that lasted for the last five years, enforcement of this law has been on hold; but with the decision today, the law banning abortions after a fetus can feel pain is now the law of Georgia. Responding to the victory, Camila Zolfaghari, executive director of Georgia Life Alliance said, “This is a victory for human life and human dignity. No child should have to feel the pain of being ripped apart, limb by limb in an abortion.” The 20-week ban makes it a felony for a doctor to abort a fetus after 20 weeks. She told LifeNews the court dismissed the case on grounds of sovereign immunity stating that the Georgia Constitution bans lawsuits against the state except in cases where the state decides to waive that immunity. In doing so, the Georgia Supreme Court avoided any decisions one way or the other about the constitutionality of the 20-week ban and the Court expressly noted other legal avenues that the plaintiffs could challenge the law’s constitutionality. “We understand that life has triumphed today, but we still have a long way to go before every life, born and unborn, is fully valued and protected,” said Zolfaghari. “Still we rejoice that the protection of human life grew just a little stronger today. Every single life has value.”

Gospel Today Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Matthew 13:1-23

Jesus tells the people parables, or stories, that illustrate a moral lesson. The Story of the Seeds is about how people receive the Word of God.

©2017 Bon Venture Services, LLC

Where the seeds fall...

Count all the flowers on this page that grew from seeds - how many can you find?

47 flowers

Stony Path - Birds eat seeds

The Word, like the seed, is now gone. With no Word, people do not listen.

Edge of Garden - Seeds fall between stones, sprout but don't take root

A sprouted seed is there for a moment but can't survive without roots. If The Word doesn't take root, it's not alive long enough for people to understand.

Between the Weeds - Seeds fall and sprout, but are choked out by the weeds

The seeds and Word sprout, take root, and grow for a short time. The people hear The Word, and understand, but worldly things prevent continued growth.

Healthy Soil - Seeds sprout, take root and grow well

The Word, like a healthy plant, grows beautifully. People listen, understand, and thrive on The Word of God!

If you were a seed, where would you fall?

Do you listen? Understand? Thrive on the Word of God?

Plant some seeds in good soil in pots or the garden. Watch how with patience, proper care and love, the seeds sprout and grow!
